

U.S. Department of Justice
National Institute of Corrections
Information Center

NIC Information Center Reproduction and Dissemination Release

Title: .....

Author(s): .....

Publisher: .....

Year published: .....

Copyright claimant(s): .....

The National Institute of Corrections (NIC) Information Center is a national source of information on all aspects of adult corrections, serving correctional practitioners, policy-makers, and the general public. The NIC Information Center is seeking permission to reproduce the above item, which may be provided to users on a cost recovery basis. If permission is granted, the following statement will be added to the title page of the item, and the information will be retained on file:

Permission to reproduce this material has been granted by
_____ to the National Institute of Corrections Information Center. Further reproduction requires the permission of the copyright holder.

Check below to indicate your response to this request. If this form is returned with no box checked, permission as indicated in the first statement will be assumed.

<input type="checkbox"/>	I approve the reproduction and dissemination of this material by the NIC Information Center in paper and electronic formats (including disk, Web, and/or email dissemination).
<input type="checkbox"/>	I approve the reproduction and dissemination of this material by the NIC Information Center in paper copy only.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I deny permission for the NIC Information Center to reproduce and disseminate this material.

Signature of authorized agent:	Date:
Typed or printed name and title:	Organization:
Address, including ZIP code:	Telephone:
Person to contact if further information is needed:
Address and telephone, if different from above:

Please return form to:
NIC Information Center
11900 E. Cornell Ave.
Aurora, Colorado 80014
Telephone (800) 877-1461; Fax (303) 338-6645